Naples, June 13, N. S.

ON the 8th anchored in this Port a Transport Veſſel, with 217 Recruits from Majorca and Barcelona, for the Spaniſh Troops in this Kingdom.

From the Camp at Genoa, June 13, N. S.

Laſt Monday, towards the Evening, we made two falſe Attacks; the firſt at St. Pierre d'Arena on three Sides, in order to draw the greateſt Part of the Enemy that Way, which accordingly happened, as they were attacked by the Piemonteſe from two ſtrong Batteries placed at the Head of the Cevera; by the Germans at the Bridge of Corneliano, and by the Engliſh by Sea, as if we intended to deſtroy the ſaid Place of St. Pierre, and the Lanthorn; at the Mountain of Fratello the Germans alone attacked them, and continued firing till the next Day. The Forts of the Biſagno on the Side of Torrazza, as well as of Seſtri di Levante, were likewiſe attacked by the Generals Andreaſi, Strach and Clerici, with the Troops under their Command; and the Peaſants of Seſtri di Levante, who were put to Flight, were obliged to retire to the City, and thoſe that were taken, were cut to Pieces. We made ourſelves Maſters of the Mountain della Madonna, with all the Artillery found in the Forts of the ſaid Mountain, as well as of the Biſagno, and the Enemy have ſuſtained much the greater Loſs. By the next Letters we ſhall give a fuller and more diſtinct Account of this Action.

Florence, June 20, N. S. The only Accounts we have received of the Motion of the Neapolitan Troops are, that 5000 Men are marched from Naples, Averſa, and Capua, to Chieti in Abruzzo, where they are for the preſent quartered.

Venice, June 21, N. S. We have received here Yeſterday by an Eſtafette, the following Account of the taking the Madonna del Monte and Biſagno, which is confirmed by an Expreſs the Government received this Morning from their Reſident at Milan; who adds, that the Auſtrians had alſo taken the Belvidere, and St. Pierre d'Arena, which had been reduced to Aſhes by the violent Fire from the Britiſh Fleet.

Marſeilles, June 26, N. S. We hear this Inſtant, that the Auſtrians have made themſelves Maſters of Notre Dame de le Monte, from whence they can eaſily bombard and cannonade the City of Genoa, and oblige it to ſurrender in a few Hours.

Head Quarters of the Camp of Heer, July 6, N. S. Since the Action of the 2d, we have been employ'd in taking Care of our Wounded, and ſupplying the Men with ſuch Neceſſaries as are generally loſt on ſuch Occaſions. Numbers of our Men have returned ſince the Action, who eſcaped from the Enemy in the great Confuſion they were in. The Enemy own 6000 Men wounded; from whence it is eaſy to imagine what their Killed muſt amount to. We have not yet been able to learn the Names of the Generals they have loſt, but they reckon four Lieutenants General certainly dead.

The French King is ſtill at the Grande Commanderie and Marſhal Saxe at Hoesfelt, where they have been ſince the Action: They talk of detaching a Corps under M. de Lowendahl, but we have as yet no certain Accounts that ſuch a Body is march'd.

General Tripps's Corps encamps near Viſet, where the Pandours are poſted, and General Baroniai at Rechem on the other Side the Meuſe. The Army has Orders to be ready to march, and a Camp is mark'd at Gronsfeldt.

The Enemy have ſent back this Day our unwounded Priſoners, the Wounded being taken Care of in the French Hoſpitals, as their's are in our's at Maeſtricht. We expect our Officers back in a few Days, in Purſuance of the Cartel of Franckfort.

We ſent back Yeſterday the Enemy's Priſoners.

His Royal Highneſs reconnoitred Yeſterday beyond Viſet.

Rotterdam, July 7, N. S. A Letter from Louvain ſays, that 4000 wounded of the French were expected in that Town. Since M. Belleiſle's taking the Caſtle of Villa Franca, there is no News of his having forced General Leutrum at Ventimiglia; but on the contrary, a Report is ſpread that the French Troops have been repulſed.
